

Tarpeena's Pages

For girls and boys aged 6-12 years

Dear Girls and Boys,

When I visited the June Solstice

Antarctica Festival in Hobart, there were great displays, photos and drawings of what life is like in the Antarctic. Find the coded eggs to find out what the plants and wildlife must be in order to survive in the conditions there.

Q. What is black and white and lives in Hawaii?

Always remember that the best choice you can make is to be FREE and say NO!

Q. What's big white and furry and found in outback Australia?

Find a friend or mentor who will help you to stay FREE and be resilient.

This word means that they can survive in spite of bad conditions. As boys and girls, we also need to have this quality.

We need to know how to stand up for right when others around us try to get us to do wrong things. We need to know how to live well when circumstances are difficult or others are taking drugs or making bad choices.

One way that we can be like this is to have a good relationship with a person who will believe in us and help us. Sometimes this person is called a mentor. That means they are there to help us when things get difficult. They could be our coaches, pastors or friends. They also help us when become confusing. Confusion usually results when something is wrong or you cannot see which way to go.
People become confused in blizzards because all the landmarks are blotted out by the snow.

Alcohol is a poison which also causes confusion because things are going wrong within the body.
The brain is one organ that is affected. The connections in the brain which help us to make decisions and choices will have been damaged or may not have developed properly if a baby was exposed to alcohol while it was growing.

As a result, a person will often go through life being very confused and finding it difficult to make good choices.

The snowflakes have some good ideas for your life.

Your friend,

Tarpeena

7/8/9-07

Q. What is round and nasty?

A. A vicious circle

Remember that Jesus, our Saviour has promised to help us at all times.

Be a friend to someone else
and encourage them to choose wisely.
