For girls & boys
aged 6 to 12

Hey Smukey,

Look what I've got! They're really yummy looking sweets! They smell like strawberries. Want some?

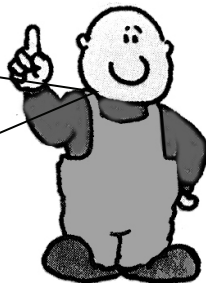

"No, thank you!"
I only eat what my parents give me.

That's very wise, Smukey!
Those sweets are a dangerous drug called Strawberry Meth or Strawberry Ice.
You don't want to have what happened to Ena!

Too true! I ended up in hospital and nearly died because I was drugged by taking sweets and food that someone offered me. I didn't say "No!"

Well, I'm glad I was taught not to swap food or sweets with friends or strangers. It's always safer to say "No thanks!"

Well Smukey, not only could food, drink or sweets have drugs in them but some children have allergies to certain foods and these allergies could cause serious health risks. So I always eat just what my parents say I can have.

I think it is sad that people use drugs. Ice and other "meth" drugs are very addictive and cause serious health problems.

Work out the code shapes to discover what the best choice is.
Be wise and keep safe!
