

SAY NO!

By Barry J McGuire

The drunkards of tomorrow
Will come from the children of today,
So never take a sip, my child
Don't throw your life away.

A drink may seem inviting
It may sparkle in your glass,
But like an adder
and a viper

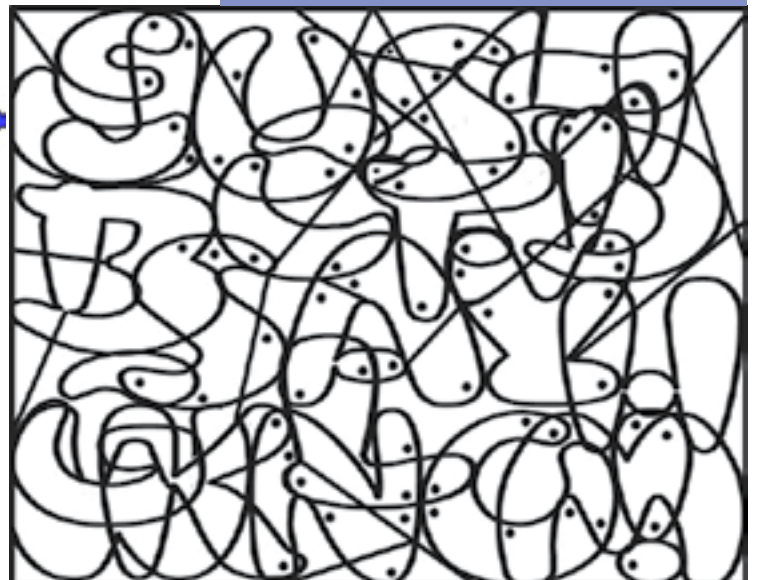

It will destroy your life real fast.

Colour in the shapes with dots in red to discover a good answer when invited to drink alcohol or use other drugs.

When the drunkard took his first drink
He never dreamed he'd be the one,
To end his days
in such a state
Or he would never have begun.

If you never have the first drink
Saying "No" will be a breeze,
And your life will be so much better Than to live with the disease!

FASD AWARENESS DAY

Start at the red arrow and join the dots 1 - 50. Cut a small piece of scrap fabric and glue onto the picture to make a nappy.

Alcohol can cause life-long disabilities and brain damage to the unborn child. Parents can help the unborn baby to have a healthy start to life by not drinking, taking drugs or smoking.

Plan to tell someone about FASD (Foetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders) on September 9 by wearing red shoes or socks, ringing a bell at 9.09 am or painting a red shoe rock and hiding it in the open for someone to find. Check out the website shown below to learn the stories of people who live with FASD and learn how you can help by painting and hiding a rock. Help protect other children from harm.
